

Take Away Homework

Choose your homework from the menu below:

The Peri-ometer suggests the difficulty or challenge the homework may offer. Every half term you should attempt at least one 'HOT or EXTRA HOT' task!

Year 9
Cycle 2

Adaptation	Earth	Motion and pressure
What makes the rainforest so special?? Write a report outlining what makes the tropical rainforest special as a Ecosystem	Name that eruption....? Create a video or fact file about a volcanic eruption... what happened, who did it effect, what else to include?	In a moment... Create a power point to explain how a crane load is used
What is competition Produce a powerpoint or booklet outlining competition and what animals and plants compete for .	Explore the features of the rock cycle. Produce a document to show the rock cycle. Be creative.	Name that pressure! Create model or a poster to explain about the pressure in a liquid. What are its uses?
Investigate what animals are found in a pond or forest habitat Create a visual display of these resources including suggested food chains and webs.	Imagine visiting a year 3 and 4 class to explain types of rocks. Can you produce any resources to help spark interest and inspire? What visual aids would you use?	Imagine visiting a year 7 class to explain about the Pressure equation. Can you produce any resources to help spark interest and inspire? What visual aids would you use?
Name that adaptation! Create model or a poster if an anima which is dadpted to a named habitat (It can be made up).	Find pictures showing different landscapes. Can you create a college of all the different rock types?	Investigate high heels. Display this information any way you choose.